A caller reported that there were two males walking in the parking lot of the Acura Dealership and they did not appear to be employees. When I arrived on scene, I located two males in the lot who said that they were looking at cars and they were in the process of leaving. I advised both parties that I would need their ID's as there have been multiple thefts from the dealership. Both parties, Michael and Christian, were negative for warrants and they advised that they would only shop for cars in Massachusetts from now on. We also made contact with the cleaning crew at the business who stated that they had not had contact with either individual.
