 PALMER, HUBBARD E HOUSTON, TX 77057
 Sent the letter attached to this Call for Service to E. Hubbard Palmer of Check Collection of America. This was at the request of "Ms. Riddle", who would not provide me with her full name but had contacted the County Attorney's Office with a complaint that we had "failed" to prosecute a case for them. After two telephone conversations with Ms. Riddle, she refused to provide me with the information needed to go forward with this case that involves a Bad Check at Home Depot for $2443.88. She advised that E. Hubbard Palmer, the Attorney for their company stated that our Department "had to" proceed with the case with the information she had sent to us on April 6, 2012. I told Ms. Riddle to provide me with an address for Attorney Palmer and I would send him a letter detailing what we needed specifically to go forward with a Felony Prosecution. That letter to Attorney Palmer on April 12, 2012, along with the very vague information provided by Ms. Riddle is attached to this Call for Service. As of March 13, 2013 I have heard nothing further from Ms. Riddle or Attorney Palmer so we will not draw a case nor investigate this event because of their failure to provide information needed to go forward.
