Kendall, cemetery trustee, came in to let us know that there are 2 baby raccoons that seem to be abandoned. They were 1st seen yesterday. The mother has most likely been killed. He said that he put them together sheltered behind a tombstone. He described their location as off the 1st road into the cemetery from Post road, 3rd line in on the left behind a large white marble tombstone. He's concerned b/c we're supposed to get another frost tonight and they are already shaking with fear and cold. I contacted Fremont PD who I know to have a lot of wild life encounters to see who they could recommend to come get the babies. Mary gave me the name of Julie Tucker out of Rye and her number. I called at 1350 and left a voice mail for Julie. On 5/14/13, I received a call from J. TUCKER who advised that she had located a veterinarian, Dr. Carol J. Macomber in Windham, NH who would be willing to take custody of the baby raccoons. I then made arrangements for K. CHEVALIER to escort J. TUCKER to the location in the cemetery so that she could transport the raccoons to Dr. Macomber
