I observed a female running down the roadway from the Tudor Apartments. I made contact with the female who advised that she was coming from a friend's apartment and was going to Ray's Seafood to wait for her other friend to pick her up. I ran her information through SPOTS and determined that she was negative 10-23. William Gramstorff then approached me and said he saw the female run from the apartment downstairs which was vacant. I checked the apartment, which was secured and nothing appeared to be out of order. I also checked with a waitress at Ray's Seafood who stated that the female came into the lobby and advised that she was just there waiting for a ride. The girl left a short time later.

Vehicle: BLK 2004 HYUN 4D ACCENT Reg: PASS NH 1923588
Owner: NELSON, WILLIAM NORTHWOOD, NH 03261

Betty reported a vehicle parked in front of her restaurant after hours. She described several occupants and said that they got out of their vehicle and were talking in the lot. The vehicle and occupants were gone upon my arrival and no description was given. I checked the area with negative contact. Betty also asked about a vehicle that had been parked in her lot without her permission. I told Betty that if it was parked on her property she had the right to have it towed. Vehicle information has been added to the call incase the owner returns and the vehicle has been towed.
