Calling Party: LOMBARD, ANGIE M NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862
Involved Party: ADINOLFO, WILLIAM J NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862
ANGIE LOMBARD called to report hearing guns shots, and advised the shots are not from the gun range but sound like behind the area of her neighborhood. I checked the area and located two subjects at RC Aces field. They were firing a rifle across a marsh toward Route 1 in the direction of Hobbs Farm. Identified WILLIAM ADINOLFO who came over to me. He told me he is a member of RC Aces and the club would have no problem with target shooting on the property. He told me the rifle is a .22 caliber rifle, and they are outside the 300 ft. buffer of any structure and firing hollow points toward targets across the marsh with a backdrop of trees. Told him my concern was firing in direction of Rte.1 with a rifle in a non-approved firing range, but he was outside the 300 ft. buffer. I told him I would notify Fish & game as well. negative NCIC on WILLIAM. The other subject I did not speak with but he told me it was his wife. At about 1515 hrs. ANGIE LOMBARD came to NHPD and informed what I found and I informed her. She told me she would spread the word around with her other neighbors so they will know.

Seavie came to the police department to complain that the department had been "harassing" his landscaper by not allowing him to park on Mill Road, but that the same regulation had not been enforced against other landscapers. He also complained that the police chief had not been enforcing the laws that he voted in favor of and was not very pleased with the chief or the department. Several officers, and I all spoke with Seavie to explain procedures but he was not open to listening and only felt we were "harassing" his landscaper.
