At residence determined three kids inside who denied calling, and I waited for EPD. EPD arrived just before the father of the kids. Exeter PD was not sure the house was in their town due to Stratham having taken over some land in the area. He was not totally sure if the house was in North Hampton, Stratham, or Exeter, but because of the power company uses the address of 146 Exeter Road, North Hampton, but the address use to be 5 North Hampton Road, Exeter.  I responded for a disturbance involving two neighbors. The neighbor called to report that his neighbor from across the street is drunk and has been in the middle of the street challenging him to a fight and would like police to speak to him. We went across the street, the home of MICHAEL TALTY and SYLVIA CHEEVER. TALTY stepped outside to speak with us and was intoxicated. He admitted that he had been outside on his own property at the edge of the driveway and being loud celebrating "a win" about his chickens. He told us he was saying "chickens, chickens, chickens." I told him from what I understand it was not a win, the zoning board continued the matter another month and he told us to him that was still "a win." After a few minutes he agreed to stay inside and go to bed. The neighbor was told to call us if TALTY returns out into the roadway.
