Location/Address: [NOH 248] PINE HAVEN MOTEL

Calling Party: SMITH, PATRICIA NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862

P. Smith called regarding a complaint of harassment. P. Smith advised that she believes that K. Tanner had parked her car just outside her window and was purposely running the vehicle so the exhaust would drift into her window causing her breathing problems. Upon arrival I spoke with all parties involved. I advised P. Smith that because of the close proximity of her motel window to the parking lot, which is approximately two feet to the nearest parking space, that there wasn't much I could do for her. I advised K. Tanner and J. Purcell of the issue and they advised they would be more careful of P. Smith's medical needs. I advised P. Smith that she could remedy the situation by closing the window if exhaust fumes from vehicles bother her. She stated that she needed fresh air for her medical issues. I advised that she could have the Motel move her to another room better suited for her needs. She stated that she didn't want to move. After a long conversation peace was restored.
