Calling Party: DONAIS, RUTH S NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862
Received a request from RCD to contact DONAIS reference to a possible credit card scam. Upon calling DONAIS, she explained that she had recently received a phone call from unknown credit card company requesting for her validate her credit card information. DONAIS said that the call had been made by an automated voice recording and that she did not provide them with any of her information. DONAIS was able to provide me with the phone number (1-800-441-1065) and I advised that I would contact them in order to get more information. Upon calling the number, I received an automated message and was advised that I had reached HSBC Credit Card. I was not able to speak with an actual representative because I needed to enter to credit card number. I researched HSBC on the internet and determined that it is a legitimate credit card company. I later contacted DONAIS and inquired if she had a credit card with HSBC. She advised that she did and I informed her that's who had called her. I informed DONAIS that she should not give any of her information to the company if they should call back and it is an automated recording.
