Location/Address: 173 ATLANTIC AVE
Involved Party: MORRISSEY, TIMOTHY K NEWMARKET, NH 03857
While at the school crossing, a male subject identified as; Timothy K. Morrissey approached me and advised that he was a contractor and was supposed to work at 173 Atlantic Ave. Morrissey stated that he had been at the house for the last two days and noticed that one of the doors was wide open, but no one was home. Mr. Morrissey requested a well being check at the house. Officer Adams and I responded to the residence and checked every room on the farm. The farm appeared to be occupied but we didn't locate anyone. We couldn't find any sign of forced entry. We then secured the farm and cleared the scene. I requested the afternoon shift to check the farm later on. Mr. Morrissey advised me that the owner of the residence is identified as; Bob. I contacted this number and left a message.

Received a called about a loose K-9 running in the roadway and in the yards of others. The called had attempted to make contact with the owner and was unsuccessful, he did not want to see the K-9 hit. Upon arrival I spoke with the caller and then went to the owners home. I was able to make contact with an individual who was sitting the K-9s. It turned out the battery in the collar had lost its charge, all was ok and the k-9 was brought inside.
