Calling Party: WHITING, PATRICIA NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862
Returned phone call regarding her K-9 that went missing yesterday around 1600 hours. Caller was advised to call Woodes Kennel to see if her K-9 had been brought there. The caller was then advised if her K-9 was at the facility, she would need to come to the station to complete a release form first before picking the K-9 up.
Patricia sent her nanny Susan in to get the dog release form. It was determined that the dog was not registered. I explained how to get the dog registered. Susan returned a little while later with proof of registration and she was given the release form. It was also discovered that there is a second jack russell terrier named Jasper that is not registered. They were given until 9/11/09 to bring in proof of registration for the second dog to avoid any further action.

 Calling/Inv. Party: BIRD, HARLEY A NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862
 Involved Party: BIRD, GREGORY JAMES NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862
 BIRD came to the station stating she wanted to speak with an officer about some "strange" events that have taken place in her life over the past couple of months. She stated she was recently married and is now seeking a divorce. She was concerned about a few things going on. I advised her she could apply for a restraining order through the Hampton District Court. She also mentioned her husband was driving around with no license with her vehicle and did not want anything to happen to her about that. I confirmed this information and advised her I would document this report to us. She was happy with us doing a dispatch entry and requested the police pull into the lot of her home a little more.

09-6619 1735 POLICE, GENERAL CALLS Services Rendered

Location/Address: BASS BEACH - OCEAN BLVD

Dispatch had given Rye Police a call about someone urinating on a beach and the Rye officer determined that it actually occurred at the beach across from Causeway Road at Bass Beach in North Hampton. He was trying to catch up to the vehicle that traveled S/B on Ocean Boulevard, a Green Mercury Sable with MA M64140. Unable to locate in North Hampton, I also asked dispatch to notify Hampton. The occupants are believed to be intoxicated. A short time later Hampton Falls Police stopped the vehicle and took two into custody, one for DWI. They were taken to Rockingham County Jail.

Calling Party: QUALTER, PAT EXETER, NH 03833
Involved Party: BOIES, SUSAN F NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862

Received a call from PAT QUALTER who works for Cambridge Trust Company. A vacant residence they are managing is believed to have been broken into this past weekend sometime after Friday. It appears someone may have entered a barn and stole a table. The Company is requesting police conduct patrols by the location. No one is staying there and there should not be vehicles there. Family members would be allowed on the property such as SUSAN BOIES, and she is not the one who took the table because she is the one that reported it to QUALTER. At this time only increased patrols is requested.
