 Mr. Boulерice came to the station to report that he was assaulted by a co-worker at work but he was not sure what to do about it. He stated that he works for DragonFly Mosquito and he was on a job site in North Hampton yesterday. He stated that he was standing between two vehicles and one of his co-workers pinned him between them with one of the vehicles, causing injury to his left knee. He stated that his co-worker was just playing around but unfortunately he was hurt in the process. Mr. Boulерica identified his co-worker as Sean Leifeld. Boulерica stated that he didn't know if he should press any charges against Leifeld or not. I advised him that I couldn't make the decision for him and advised him that he could seek legal advised. Mr. Boulерice also advised me that he fears that his work place would not coverhim while he is injured. I advised him that he can also speak to a lawyer about that because that was a civil matter.

Calling Party:     BASSETT, STEPHEN NEWFIELDS, NH 03856

GAUDET arrived at the NHPD to advise that he has spoken another neighbor of his, BODGE, who stated they she observed MACINNES looking through other people's mailboxes. I informed GAUDET that I would look into this matter. After GAUDET departed, MACINNES contacted the NHPD and informed GAUDET that he had been accused of looking into other people's mailboxes. MACINNES denied doing so and maintained that he knew it was against the law. MACINNES did advise that three weeks ago he was requested to take in BASSETT's mail, which he did, because BASSETT is a friend of his. I informed MACINNES that at this point it would be documented that a complaint was made and hopefully the NHPD wouldn't receive any similar complaints.

Calling Party:     CARON, PAUL HAMPTON, NH 03842
Involved Party:   VANDENBULCKE, ANDRE P EPPING, NH 03042

CARON arrived at the NHPD to make a complaint about a local business, Scoots Motor, LLC. Specifically, CARON explained that he recently purchased a motor scooter from the dealership on 7/15/08 and was unable to register the scooter at the town offices in Hampton because the Certification of Origin for the Vehicle (AKA Title) had been altered. CARON provided a written contract and Purchase and Sale Agreement. Following review of the documents, it was determined to be a civil matter because CARON had entered into contractual agreement. However, I informed CARON that I would research the matter in order to make sure of this. I contacted NHSP Troop G and left a message notifying them of the complaint. CARON explained that the business told him that they will get him a new title, but hasn't followed through.

Mr. Lepage stated that last February he had a consignment agreement with Billy Pydynkowski, who is the owner of American Adventure RV. The agreement was for the sale of Lepage's RV on Pydynkowski property. Lepage advised that he called Billy numerous times but he hasn't return his calls. Lepage also advised that he went to the business and the RV was sold here. I advised Lepage that unfortunately this case was a civil matter because they had a consignment agreement. I call American Adventure for Lepage and talked to Pydynkowski Jr. who advised me that the deal on Lepage RV was almost done and that he was just waiting on his father Billy to give authorization to write Lepage a check. I advised Lepage of my conversation with Pydynkowski Jr. and advised him that it was a civil matter.

Vehicle: RED 2001 HYUN 4D ACCENT Reg: PASS MA 33FB94

Responded for a report of a domestic disturbance between two subjects. The caller advised that her son and her heard people arguing. She advised that she just wanted to make sure that everyone was okay because she heard a lot of profanity coming from the residence. Officer Oliveira and I then made contact with a male identified as; Matthew Coelho. He stated that he and his girlfriend were having a verbal argument but it was inside the house, he also advised that his girlfriend left. After talking to him for a few minutes, his girlfriend returned to the house. I separated her from him and asked her to tell me what happened. She was identified as; Lauren Prater. She stated that they were just having an argument like any other couple and that she left to defuse the situation. Both subjects didn't have any sign of being assaulted. Both were advised to keep their difference and their argument civilized and not to have argument outside because it disturbs the peace of the neighborhood.

Responded for a repot of a yellow lab sick on the beach. The dog appeared exhausted and was limping from his left rear leg. No body at the beach recognized the dog, as well as some of the motel customers. The dog was taken to North Hampton Hospital to be checked for any injuries. The hospital employees were able to scan the dog and located a chip on him. The chip reveal that the dog was from 17 Fountain St, Haverhill, MA and it belongs to R. Simmons. It also gave a phone number of (1-978-265-5324). I contacted that number but it was out of service. The dog's name is "Jack". After he was checked by the vet, I took Jack to Woodes Kennel.

Party called to report that she went to L&J Gas in North Hampton and asked for regular gasoline. While attendant was pumping gas, 10-88 noted that "high test" was being pumped and notified attendant that this was incorrect. Attendant agreed to only charge party for regular gasoline. Credit card was used to pay for fuel and 10-88 later noted that she had been charged for "high test". She went on to state that she has also now noted an unusual charge on her credit card from Boca Raton, FLA. I referred 10-88 to A.G. Consumer Protection reference fuel charge and asked her to speak with her credit card co. reference where merchandise from charge was to be delivered. I advised 10-88 that if the charge stems from North Hampton, she should come to NHPD to file a report.
