Calling Party:     MARSH, CHERYL P NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862
Calling Party:     MACKLIN, ROBERT E NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862
I was informed by dispatch that MARSH wanted to speak to an officer about her dogs being "stolen." I responded to her residence and she explained that her boyfriend, MACKLIN, had taken the dogs earlier today while she was at work and brought them up to their camp in Denmark, ME. MARSH explained that the dogs belonged to her. I explained to MARSH that the matter appears to be civil as MACKLIN will claim that the dogs belong to him. I informed MARSH that I will attempt to contact MACKLIN and try to arrange for a civil stand-by, but that I cannot make him bring back the dogs. The civil stand-by process was explained to MARSH. I informed MARSH that in the event MACKLIN is not receptive to the stand-by, she should file a claim with the civil court and have a judge make a ruling on ownership of the dogs. Later that shift, I contacted MACKLIN and he explained that he has the dogs with him and is separated from MARSH. MACKLIN ultimately agreed to bring back the dogs on the following day when MARSH would be at work (at 1200). I attempted to contact MARSH and let her know the status and nobody answered the phone.

Dispatch asked me to call ROBERT CHAPIN reference him wanting to speak with someone about a welfare check for a friend in Massachusetts and is not satisfied with the Massachusetts police. I called CHAPIN and he alleged that if we did not assist in locating his friend in Massachusetts (near the Cape) it will end up like a Labarre incident. I referred him back to the Massachusetts authorities and he told me they would not help him and hung up on him. He wanted me to search a GPS system on a cell phone and I told him I could not and had no jurisdiction. He told me to put him in direct contact with an agency in Massachusetts who will help him, and I told him I could not because he does not know where his friend is. He referred to the Labarre incident again if no one helps him. I told him the conversation will be ending and if there was anything else I could do for him in North Hampton, and he hung up on me.

Calling/Inv. Party: CHAPIN, ROBERT DUGLASS NORTH HAMPTON, NH 03862
Dispatch called me and told me that E911 has requested we go and speak with ROBERT CHAPIN because he is tying up 911 and would like him to stop. I responded and CHAPIN was just coming outside with garbage. He told me he has resolved his issue and is all set. I told him to stop calling 911, and he told me he only called it once. He told me he will call 911 again if the problem should happen again and if nothing is done it will end up like a Labarre incident and he will go to the newspapers about why nothing was done. I told him if he continues calling 911 for non-emergencies he could be charged. He stated again he would go to the newspapers.

CARTER, THOMAS J SEABROOK, NH 03874

Carter wanted to notify the Police of a situation in which he was assaulted and threatened by an unknown male inside the Shel-Al Trailer Park. Carter advised while making a pizza delivery he was approached by a male whom was threatening him because he claimed Carter was driving too fast through the park. Carter explained this wasn't the case but said this subject poked him in the nose with his finger as he was telling him to slow down and threatening to kick his butt if he didn't. I advised Carter he could file a complaint that would be investigated, however he didn't want to just wanted to notify the police incase it happened again.

Traveling S/B on Lafayette and observed a vehicle parked off to the side of the road just past Rollins Furniture with its lights off. It had not been there just minutes earlier because I had just driven N/B and turned around at Rye line. As I pulled up behind vehicle I observed a male with no jacket on standing behind his vehicle at trunk facing south with nothing in his hands, and he looked at me and then got into drivers seat and turned vehicle on. I activated lights and approached him, he told me he was just taking a call from his brother and pulled off to the side of the road to do so. I asked about him standing outside the vehicle by trunk, and he told me he took the call and decided to step out of the vehicle. I noticed where he stopped beside his vehicle was a line of Jean Shaheen political signs posted, and in his back seat were matching signs. He was identified as KEVIN MILLER, and he denied putting up the signs along the road even though the signs in his vehicle matched. He also denied stealing the signs, which I told him sometimes happens during elections. He admitted that he had put some up earlier at someone's property. He worked for the campaign and his vehicle had several Democratic bumper stickers for various people running for office. He understood why I conducted the field interview.

R. DAVIS arrived at NHPD an informed that his sister (DAVIS) and brother-in-law (THOMPSON) hired a contractor (FOGERTY) to paint their house. R. DAVIS explained that FOGERTY has made concerning comments about not being allowed to a move a vehicle he had parked in their driveway. R. DAVIS questioned if the vehicle was stolen. I informed R. DAVIS that I would need to speak with the property owner, THOMPSON. I checked with dispatch and confirmed that the vehicle is negative NCIC. I then contacted THOMPSON and informed him the same and it was determined that the vehicle's registration has expired and that may be why he has not wanted to moved it. I explained to THOMPSON that at this time the matter appears to be civil because THOMPSON had hired the FOGERTY to paint his house and allowed him to park his vehicle in the driveway. I informed THOMPSON that if the FOGERTY does not move the vehicle after being requested to, to contact NHPD and I can attempt to follow-up.
