Minutes of the No. Cove Historic District Commission Public Hearing held on April 29, 1986 at the Old Saybrook Town Hall at 7:30 p.m.

Members present: Chairperson - Suzie Cole
Vice-Chairperson - Bill Swayne
Clerk - Jack Callahan
Jim Platt
Dick Tietjen

Alternates present: Charlie Ficker

Chairperson Suzie Cole called the meeting to order at 7:35 p.m. The Clerk read the posted legal notice of the meeting that appeared in the Middletown Press.

The first item to be heard was the proposal by Paul and Cathy Dubuc for alteration/new construction at 138 No. Cove Rd. Mr. Dubuc presented his plans in detail, including construction of a 40' by 32' house attached to an already existing structure.

The next item discussed was that of John and Elizabeth Schneider of 175 No. Cove Rd. in regard to a proposed garage expansion. Restoration expert, Skip Broom, presented drawings of the project. Estimated time of construction to be about 3 months from commencement.

The last item on the agenda was a proposed 3 1/2' room expansion of the home of Robert and Janet Foisie of 101 No. Cove Rd. Architect Bill O'Rielly presented the Commission with these plans. Estimated completion date set for July 15, 1986.

All the applicants provided the Commission with detailed copies of their projects. The Commission will rule on the matters as soon as possible.

Chairperson Suzie Cole adjourned the meeting at 8:50 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted

Jack Callahan - Clerk
