

Standards to determine if testimony is scientifically valid:

1. Has the underlying scientific theory been tested, or is it testable?
2. Has the science been peer-reviewed and/or published?
3. What is the error rate of the science?
4. Is the methodology generally accepted in the scientific community?