Members Absent: Charlie Bletzer, Dick Quintal & Donna Fernandes

9:08 pm Ms. Pratt shares that last week, Attorney Marzelli sent a letter to Mr. Lundborn placing him on temporary Administrative Leave, pending the outcome of his situation. Mr. Lundborn has 103 Park Plymouth appeals with him. Ms. Pratt will send him an email requesting he return the appeals as soon as possible so we can process them in his absence.

Mr. Burke will check references for two qualified applicants who are interested in temporarily handling appeals. Ms. Pratt will ask Attorney Marzelli to draft a temporary contract.

Mr. Zanotti motions and Mr. Driscoll seconds to authorize Mr. Burke and Ms. Pratt to create a Temporary Appeals Hearing Officer contract for Mr. Price's endorsement

9:20 pm The Chief of Police approved a Leave of Absence (LOA) for MEO D. Axon until 10/21/2011. The AFSCME grieved the length of the LOA, and it is now in the Town Manager's office. Labor Council advised to extend the LOA until 10/26. Mr. Burke sent an email requesting an update but still has not heard anything.

Respectfully submitted by PGDC Secretary Mr. Alan P. Zanotti –
