5.0) OLD BUSINESS: None

6.0) OTHER BUSINESS: None

7.0) OPEN PUBLIC FORUM: Fire Chief Frank Barresi was present and stressed the importance for residents to keep their mailboxes clear of snow so the responding emergency personnel are able to locate their homes when necessary.

Jane Foster, Animal Control Officer was present and informed the public that she does not have any dogs at the shelter and does not have any missing dogs from Attleboro. Residents should not place notices on Facebook. They should call her directly if they are missing an animal.

8.0) BOARD OF SELECTMEN REPORTS: D. Perry stated the importance of having well trained emergency response personnel ready to respond as needed. We saw the high degree of professionalism during the recent snow storm demonstrated by all responding personnel. He thanked all Town staff for their efforts.

J. Tito thanked the hard work of the Highway Department during the storm. He noted the limited resources and reduced budget but Town staff despite these limited resources still take very seriously protecting the public's safety. Snow banks and piles are attractive hiding places parents should watch their children when they are playing outside.

J. Tito noted the recently issued "Summary Judgment" in favor of the Town in the ongoing litigation with REPAC. Go Pats!

M. Costello said there were thirty-five (35) pieces of equipment on the road during the storm. It is estimated to have the Town at least $51,000.
