

<d.sullivan.jr@comcast.net> wrote:

>John

>

>Unfortunately it appears right now that I will be required to work >tomorrow night as my day off request was not approved.

>

>If this fact stays as is I will not be able to attend the CPC meeting.

>

>In reference to items previously discussed I would appreciate it if you >could bring up the Crandall Property corner of Hammond and Chestnut St's.
>We had the notice of right first refusal. The Selectmen have not acted >yet. Mr Crandall came before the Planning Board to start the Subdivision >Process pending action by the Town. This could still be a useful site for >the Town for a combination playground area or ball fields combined with >walking trails etc.

>

>Since this was a chapter 61 land situation the CPC can propose a use for >the site. Just that CPC funds would go toward engineering as well as >purchase price.

>

>Second I think a broader discussion about the CPC developing a program of >some sort announcing that proposals for Active Recreation and Historical >Preservation uses etc would be accepted by the CPC. If we don't get the >word out how are people to know?

>

>And a discussion about what's been brought up by Parks and Recreation >during the Open Space Meetings would be a good idea as well. Active >Recreation with idea toward a "larger" Complex idea and the smaller >neighborhood playgrounds. Not to be placed on School grounds.

>

>That's all I have.

>

>Appreciate your bringing this up.

>

>Thanks

>Dave

>

>

>

>Sent