Attleboro Dye Works Presentation by Tracey Costa from Ransom Consulting and Mary Ellen DeFrias from MassDevelopment

Ms. Costa had a presentation on the environmental assessment done with the MassDevelopment grant of almost $200,000 awarded to the town. Phase II had to be completed by November to apply for an EPA Brownfields grant. The next step is Phase III – clean up. Most of the contamination was attributed to the Attleboro Dye Works. In the current assessment, they collected samples and drilled some borings. The good news is that over 24 species of critters are surviving in the river. No contamination in ground water. EPA awarded a $650,000 site specific grant. More testing has to be done to verify how much cleanup has to be done and some wetland sampling. Most of the debris has to be disposed of in bulk waste. The lagoon materials would have to be dug up. They have to continue to monitor ground water. All cleanup has to be done in accordance with regulations.

Conservation Agent Jennifer Miller advised that a RFP will go out on Friday. There has been a lot of interest. Hope to award by the end of April.

BOARD OF SELECTMEN LIAISON REPORTS AND COMMENTS

Veterans Memorial Park Committee

Mr. Viera advised nothing until March. The additional bricks purchased will be put in at that time.

As a candidate for re-election, he will have a coffee hour on Wednesday, January 31, from 7 to 8 p.m. at Honey Dew Donuts on Central Avenue.

He spoke about the Veterans Memorial Park Committee. They agreed to put the question about the howitzer on the ballot. Received an e-mail today that wording is not specific. The veterans in this town have paid enough and are still fighting to get what should be automatic. If he thought the howitzer was going to create this kind of turmoil, it wouldn't be here. They thought it was an excellent artifact and a piece of history. They will abide by the outcome of the ballot question. He hoped all people will honor the wishes of majority of people that come out to vote. He will.

Ms. Hines thanked members of the boards who attended the Quad Board meeting. She attended the recent School Committee meeting. She saw a presentation by a planning architectural designer. She encouraged residents to watch the presentation on U-tube and on the school site. She will be attending future meeting. Basically, enrollment is going up because more homes are being built in town.

She explained her vote against the ballot question for the charter change. She doesn't agree with that. She is satisfied with the Charter. The election is on April 9.

With regard to the howitzer, she said people in town are not against veterans. They love the park. They don't like the gun.

She announced the Taste of the Town sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Greater Seekonk, Inc. will be held on Tuesday, March 6, 2018, from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Grand Rose Ballroom at the Clarion Inn, 940 Fall River Avenue. The cost is $30 per ticket. Tickets are available from Bev Hart, Bev Della Grotta, and the Town Clerk' office.

Mr. Almeida said it was nice to see all the boards together at the Quad Board meeting. He shared with the School Committee that the Board of Selectmen tries to keep pay increases to a minimum. It was dismissed. That is disappointing to him.

Chairman Andrade said the ten-year plan shows the School Department needs 8,000 sq. ft. of classroom space. He urged residents to keep in mind that although the need is up cycle right now it will eventually go down. He can't see building a 56,000 sq. ft. school that might sit quarter occupied in ten years.

EXECUTIVE SESSIONS

At 9:13 p.m. Mr. Parker motioned, seconded by Mr. Viera, to go into Executive Session to conduct strategy sessions with respect to negotiations with the Seekonk Firefighters Union IAFF, Local 1931, per M.G.L. Chapter 30A, Section 21(a)(3) as having the discussion in open session would be detrimental to the litigation or bargaining position of the town, to consider the purchase of 351 Fall River Avenue per M.G.L. Chapter 30Am, Section 21(a)(6) as having the discussion in open session would be detrimental to the negotiating position of the town and to consider the approval of Executive Sessions minutes of December 13, 2017 and December 27, 2017; not to return to Open Session.

January 24, 2018
