Ms. Julia Roberts spoke with regard to the letter the Stonington Village Improvement Association's letter. She stated that she feels that they built up something unique in the Town of Stonington. For over 15 years they have built up a really nice farmers' market. They are a year round market – one of the only ones in Connecticut. She further stated that they should have anticipated that since they are bringing a lot of people to the town dock on Saturday mornings for 3 hours that they operate, that other people may want to piggy back on that. Ms. Roberts stated they are just asking that there be some consideration for the fact that it is a farmers' market and they are running it very tightly, very well in connection with the town sanitarian. They are hoping to preserve what they have built.
