Safety & Security measures for district schools discussion

Chairman Bates stated that they have been working with Board of Education and other officials in education to come up with a reasonable response to the tragedy in Newtown. This has three components: pro emergency protocol which is already in place; infrastructure, which with the approval of the Pilot project at West Vine Street School is a great start and increased presence at all the schools. The periodic checks to the schools has been received well and he believes it to be a standard response as well as sustainable to the taxpayers. The original $100,000 request from March 15, 2013 had two main components- training exercises to include the response from the whole of government to an active shooter scenario and increased presence overtime. After looking at the resources it was determined that $63,000 was reasonable. Visits to the schools would not be every day but 140 days out of the year and would include tabletop exercises critical to keeping all parties coordinated and prepared. Chief Stewart added that the Police department has had regular meetings with all the schools since Newtown .They have received good feedback from parents, administrators and officers. He mentioned that the original $100,000 request was made immediately after Newtown and with research since the new figure of $63,000 has been determined as a more realistic and sustainable plan.

Chairman Bates wanted the residents to know that literally within minutes of the Newtown shooting the First Selectman was in contact with him and the Police Chief to discuss potential solutions. BOE Chairwoman MacDonald and Superintendent Riley are pleased with the successful response. Protocols have been updated along with increased communication and the WVSS Pilot project is an excellent start. Waiting for the State is not a good idea.

Mrs. Strunk asked about what changes were made after Columbine. Mr. King stated that this prompted the security protocols in place now: coded flip charts (Blue, yellow and red) with procedures. He added that a few minor adjustments are required with the new plan but he would prefer not to discuss in this forum. She also mentioned the Aurora, CO shooting and asked what has been done here. Chief Stewart stated that there is security at the cinema.

Mr. O'Brien asked when the other schools would be addressed. Mr. King replied that he really wasn't sure at this time; the focus was on implementation of the WVSS pilot project. Members also discussed, training with the local hospitals, reaction plans, state mandates and space for the officers at the schools. Chief Stewart provided for the members a confidential synopsis of the Pilot project. Chairman Bates asked the Board for $20,000 to get started on the training. Mr. Frishman replied that the Special agenda item posted was as a discussion only. He added that when the Board is provided with a more detailed analysis they would be happy to address at that time.

There being no further business to come before the Board, Mr. Grimes made a motion to adjourn. Mr. Wheeler seconded the motion. The Board of Selectmen and the Board of Police Commissioners also unanimously adjourned at 7:26 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
