Executive Session

Budget Report

Communications:

Ms. Stewart stated Patti Linder was resigning from her post as secretary and Michelle Morosini would be taking her place.

Programs:

Mrs. Stewart reported that a CIRMA Certified Playground Inspector will be assessing all town playgrounds on March 24th. The Commission agreed to raise the fee for the Summer Playground Program from $100 to $150 for the 2008 season. Ms. Stewart reported on the programs currently being offered, listing the attendance of each. The volleyball nets need to be replaced, and Mr. Ciriello recommended having JayPro come to look at the poles to make sure the nets would fit with the existing poles. Ms. Stewart notified the Commission that the Human Services Department will be taking on the rental for the Pavilions, which is currently handled through the town hall. A program for Special Needs Students through the Youth and Family Services Division, partnering with Groton Recreation was discussed. The Board of Education will pay for a portion of the program.

Meeting Adjourned:

Mr. Thayer motioned to adjourn the meeting and Mr. Ciriello seconded. Motion carried unanimously. The meeting was adjourned at 7:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael Crowley, Chairman
