Shall this town approve the Charter Amendments proposed by the Town Meeting Summarized below?
Summary
 The December 12, 2016 Special Town Meeting voted unanimously to approve numerous amendments to the Town's Home Rule Charter. These amendments are primarily intended to clarify certain Charter terms and to make the necessary changes to resolve grammatical errors, capitalization, gender references and consistent naming of town boards and officials. The amendments also include: adding a definition of "Appropriation"; clarifying the duties and authority of the Moderator; availability of Town Officials at Town Meeting; clarifying the recall election procedures; extending the maximum term of a temporary Town Administrator to nine months; clarifying the suspension or removal of the Town Administrator; and removing Transitional Provisions in Article 9 that no longer serve a purpose.
