

1st Indoor Thanksgiving Farmer's Market

WHEN: Sunday, November 24th, 2013 from 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM

WHERE: Swampscott High School Atrium (inside main entrance)

VENDORS ATTENDING:

Long Hill Orchard will be providing fresh local turkeys for sale at the Thanksgiving market but make sure you get your orders in soon! You can place an order @ 978-363-2170 . They are also taking orders for stuffing, gravy, cranberry sauce, apple sauce, as well as a bunch of fall vegetables.

Piper Ranch Will have a variety of grass fed meats including their homemade charcuterie which would be perfect for Thanksgiving appetizers.

Salem Spice will help with seasoning that turkey. Leave it up to the professional and talk to David Bowie. He'll guide you through all of his unique spices including specialty salts & peppers.

Alfalfa Farm Winery will be selling their delicious wines at the market, pick some up to have with dinner or serve one of their famous fruit wines with dessert.

Grant Family Farm will be bringing a bunch of fresh fall vegetables like butternut acorn squash, delicate squash, butter cup, blue hubbard, spaghetti squash, broccoli, cauliflower, potatoes, carrots, parsnips, brussels sprouts, cabbage, celeriac, onions, kale, collards, chard, apples pears and much more.

Eventide If you've tried any of Eventide's delicious baked goods at the market this year, you know that Meg is one talented baker! Don't stress and spend hours baking pies this year, leave it up to the professional! She will be taking orders for pies at the Farmer's Market or just send her an e-mail at megpaine@hotmail.com.

Big Sky Bread will be baking up lots of fresh loaves for you to serve to your guests. Just pick up a few loaves at the market and then pop them in the freezer for a few days to keep them fresh until Thanksgiving.

Rowand's Seafood will also be at the market. Try switching it up this year by serving a seafood chowder for a first course or just pick up some delicious seafood or prepared foods to serve the week before the big meal.

In addition to these amazing food vendors, we will also have some crafters joining us so you can get your holiday shopping started. MISAAD will be joining us, they make hand-turned wooden pens, decorations, ornaments and doll accessories. You can also pick up some unique holiday cards or hand crafted ornaments from Peach Tree Cards.

Help us make this special market a big success so it can become a Swampscott tradition for years to come.
