TRASH & RECYCLE COLLECTION STORM DELAY

TORRINGTON, CT 06790

Due to tomorrow's Snow Storm prediction, there will be no municipal solid waste and recyclable collection in Torrington on Tuesday March 14, 2017. Collections will be one day behind schedule for the remainder of the week with Friday's collection being done on Saturday March 18th.

Your cooperation in digging out any solid waste and recyclables buried by the winter storm and re-placing them curbside for collection one day late this week is appreciated. Also, please do not place trash or recycle containers in the travel way where they can hinder snowplow passage.
