UXBRIDGE HISTORICAL COMMISSION
UXBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS
April 15, 2014

Meeting opened by Chairman J. Francis Cove at 4:06 PM

Present: Peter Emrick, Shirley Maynard, Faye McCloskey, Roy Henry, J. Francis Cove and Mary Dolan. Absent: William Albin

Secretary's report read. Motion to accept by J. Francis Cove seconded by Faye McCloskey.

Meeting opened on use of internship program in Uxbridge,. Would it be of valuable use in the Cornet John Farnum House? How and who would oversee handling of the program for the student to secure needed college credits. What would the college's involvement be? No resolution. Further discussion required.

Faye McCloskey submitted a motion asking J, Francis Cove to write a letter to the Planning Dept at Uxbridge Town Hall to support Ms Erin Carben's attempt to reconstruct as much as possible of her historic home on Albee Road badly damaged by fire in July, 2013. The home is on the National Register having been built by Welcome Farnum in the 1700's. Motion seconded by Peter Emrick and passed unanimously .

The lack of street lights in the Town of Uxbridge was last item to be discussed. Members are concerned for the safety of town residents, and would like to see more lights turned back on. No vote taken,

Next meeting Tuesday, May 20, 2014.

Motion to adjourn by J. Francis Cove at 4:35 PM, seconded by Faye McCloskey.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary C. Dolan
Secretary
