

UXBRIDGE HISTORIC DISTRICT COMMISSION
MARCH 27, 2018

Received by Uxbridge
Town Clerk

Meeting of Public Body to discuss the Open Meeting Law Complaints filed by Melissa Haskell, Complainant.

Members Present: Faye McCloskey, Jane Keegan, Travis Ann Do Rosario, Melissa Haskell, Marion Baker, and Michael Cove (alternate)

Members Absent: Mary Pat Wickstrom

5:30pm Meeting called to Order

Chairman, Faye McCloskey read a summary of the Allegations that were filed in the Four (4) Open Meeting Law Complaints filed by Melissa Haskell.

Chairman McCloskey opened it up for discussion among the members and alternates for comment. Melissa Haskell, complainant, stated that she would not participate in the discussion and left the table.

Discussion:

Allegations have been reviewed independently by the Town Manager, Town Moderator, Former Town Moderators, and Independent Counsel that was privately engaged by select members.

The spirit of the OML remains intact within our commission, there was no malicious intent in the process of the compiling the research for the expansion project. Additionally, there was no malicious intent and no attempt was made to compel the direction of the public body or the general public.

Motion made:

Jane Keegan made a motion, that was seconded by Travis Ann Do Rosario
No further action taken on the complaints filed, other than to commit to following the Open Meeting Law and to make inquiry of the Town Manager if questions arise in the future.

Copy of rebuttal as read by J. Keegan to be attached.

Vote was 4 – 1
