

Wareham Historical Commission
Meeting Minutes: November 7, 2012
Wareham Town Hall

Present: Angela Dunham (Co-Clerk), Cheryl Knapp (Co-clerk) Len Boutin, Treasurer, Mack Phinney, Vice Chair, Alan Slavin BOS Liason. Absent, excused- Robin Ragle-Davis (Chair).
Meeting opened at 6:36 PM

Demo requests:

1) 0 Papermill Road, Wareham, MA Fearing Hill Preserve
Property- Map 92 Parcel 61A land 30.04 Ac. Small building- a pump house
Owner: Tremont Cranberry Co., LLC -c/o Assessor's Office, 54 Marion Rd. Wareham, MA.
No historic value/significance -Vote: allow demo 4-0-0

Library -Storage room -no news, Angela will call Joe Edwards to see why the hold up.

Tremont Nail Company- one window was found open and one was found broken. This coming Friday the Boston Architectural College wants to do survey work at Tremont Nail to help get it on the National Register for Historic Buildings. It is noted that TN could possibly be flooded in a hurricane event.

CPC info- from Angela Dunham, one article: to restore the Old Town Offices building-(WCTV)- passed at the Fall Town Meeting. Angela said the Cupola should be also restored on the building.

Veterans Day Parade: A vote was taken and approved to pay $65.00, taken from the town account, for a banner for the Historic Community float. Float is all set. We need to submit a description of the float of 50 words or less being sponsored by Wareham Historic Community: to honor the Wareham minutemen and militia and regulars who fought in the Revolutionary War by depicting a Revolutionary War encampment and the transformation of farmers into soldiers and their staff, the women who supported their war efforts. The parade is forming behind Merchants Way. Mack will have the float there at 8AM and the parade starts at 10:30 AM. We need to send Donna Bronk a letter thanking her for her help in organizing and obtaining items/materials for our float.

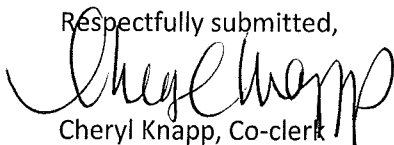

Mack also said he is trying to re-form the Minutemen and Militia and Fife and Drum Corps. Mack will be the contact and he made leaflets with info for anyone interest in joining.

Treasurer's report was read and accepted. 4-0-0

Clerks report was read and accepted as amended. 4-0-0

Meeting adjourned at 7:29 PM

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl Knapp, Co-clerk

