

“Meetinghouse:
The Heart of Washington, New Hampshire ”

A Documentary Film in Celebration of 225 Years of Service

August 11, 2012

The Washington Meetinghouse has been a vibrant part of the life of this community since its earliest days. It has evolved to meet the needs of a changing and growing town, always adaptable to the current times.

This documentary film tells the story as reconstructed from archival resources, family photos and memories, published memorabilia, and historical artifacts.

Sponsored by the

WASHINGTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Project Director: Carolyn Russell

Research and Resource Team: Charlene Cobb,

James Crandall, Gwen Gaskell, Thomas Talpey

Technical Support: Sharon Otterson, Jed Schwartz

Script Writers: Ronald Jager, Lionel Chute (Assistant)

Videographer: Accompany (John Gfroerer)

Funded by

The N. H. Humanities Council

The N.H. State Council on the Arts

And Private Donations