Publicity

Barbara said there would be no article in the Crier this week but there will be articles in the two issues. A reporter from Globe West has been interviewing some of the people on the list Barbara gave her. WayCam has recorded information from Deb, Allison, and Pam. It was suggested that the Wayland Student Press Network be asked to include information about the opening day.

Opening Day

Allison provided an update on the barn dance and Deb on the circus. Getting electricity at the middle school still needs to be worked out. Posters are being made for the six sandwich boards that Kathy Hodge located. There was a discussion of how to distribute the posters. It is not clear that the Boy Scouts will be able to deliver them. Cyndi said the leaders will be meeting next week. Deb will get more information about the cost of hiring a service to deliver the flyers to every household. Flyers will be put in every backpack.

Advance tickets will be probably be sold at Donelan's, Russell's, the Depot, Stop and Shop, Whole Foods, and at the elementary school end-of-year parties. Volunteers will be needed at the schools. Deb would like Brad to oversee the ticket sales.

T-shirts will be sold. Volunteers who work the whole day will receive a t-shirt. Pam has set up a website where volunteers can sign up. We will need at least 150 volunteers.

Tables and chairs will be borrowed from churches and perhaps the town.

The next meeting will be Wednesday or Thursday of next week.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:01pm.
