

The Trustees of the Soldiers Memorials
Meeting/minutes
September 17th, 2007

Pledge of Allegiance

Present: Lydia Goldblatt, Tom Dwyer, Jim Brown, Tom Doherty and Jean Newton

Lydia made a motion for George Perry become a voting member of the Trustees—unanimously approved

Jean to notify Nadia (at the Selectmen's office) that George Perry will be the Veteran member of the Tr. Soldiers Memorial.

Jean to attend the Selectmen's Meeting, September 25th, 2007 with George.

Jean to notify Nancy Yendriga. of the dates of the future meetings of the Trustees, and request Room 23 in the Forbes Municipal Bldg.

The dates are November 5th 2007 at 7PM ~ Winter break ~ April 7th 2008 ~ at 7PM
May 5th 2008 at 7PM and any meetings called that the Trustees deem necessary.

Have Jim Brown put on the letter as James Brown.

Jean to contact Denny Drewry about the protocol for the names on the War on Terrorism
Memorial. To possibly include; Cpl. David Miles McNiff...Sgt. Homelyne (Newton) Augustin...Pvt. Michael Robert Newton, and any other names that come before the board.

Denzil Drewry is the liaison from Fincom to Trustees; Jean to Cc: all minutes to Denny.

Vietnam Memorial has lights out, the rotary lights on all day and night, need only be on during the evening hours and the ropes on the flag at the police station to short, Lydia to take care of these matters.

Chairperson to be elected at the November meeting.

Notes to be sent out from the Trustees: Get Well to Polly Howard ~ Garden Club and to Danny Moynihan for his many years of serving this board as a veteran (only due to an 'out of town' address change is Danny not on this board.) Jean will take care of these notes.

Jean suggested doing a write up in the local newspaper about Danny...she will take care of this as well.

Respectfully submitted;
Jean E. M. Newton; Secretary
