Commission Business

➤ Open Farm Day

Mr. Horsken noted the he was able to get an article in the paper about Open Farm Day and reported a good turnout for Open Farm Day. He stated as discussed at the previous meeting, he did contact the State with regards to the disease of piglets and the State advised him the only one who would have a concern would be his farm has he is the only one with piglets. He stated that he has heard some farms are reporting a second string of the disease in their piglets.

Lawreen Strauch noted that the Blandini's were not notified of the Open Farm Day.

➤ 4th of July Parade

David Strauch reported they received 2nd Place in the parade.

Any Other Business

Mr. Horsken noted that he will be providing the North Wolfeboro Association with an update on what the Agricultural Commission has been up to.

Ms. Strunk questioned the status of the proposed Alzheimer's Facility on Rt. 28/Rt. 109.

Mr. Horsken replied it has passed the ZBA and is moving to the next step and he also met with a member of the Lake Wentworth Association to discuss the matter.

Ms. Strunk noted that she spoke to Wendy Rodgers and she has requested to receive information via mail at this time.

➤ Next Meeting

The Commission's next meeting is October 2nd at 7:00 PM.

Being no further business before the Commission, Chairman Horsken entertained a motion to adjourn.

It was moved by Mark Lush and seconded by Gail Antionucci to adjourn at 8:10 PM. Being none opposed, the motion passed.

Respectfully submitted,
